

THE STATE OF WORKPLACE EDUCATION IN THE STATES

MAINE

Funding

- Maine puts no Federal dollars towards workplace education.
- Employers contribute through targeted funding.

Current Initiatives

While there is no current initiative in workplace education in Maine, the State Department of Education has identified such programs as a need in their strategic plan. To that end, Maine has a team of local directors and staff who are exploring and developing a workplace learning handbook for adult education directors.

Location of programs

- Workplace education programs are offered at local businesses and in adult education programs.

Responsibility for implementation

- LEA's
- Employers

Support Services

- Partnership Building

One-Stop Connections

- No data is collected on the connection between adult workplace education initiatives and one-stop services.

Workplace Education Program Qualities

State	State Partners	Enrollment	State Staff	State Led Effort
Maine	Department of Labor, Department of Human Services, Department of Corrections, Maine Centers for Women Work and Community, Maine Public Broadcasting	No Data – ME does not collect	No	No

This information was compiled with the assistance of staff in the Maine Department of Education.